Table of Contents

Component 1 – Support for Diversity of Students ................................................. 3
  Introduction ........................................................................................................... 3
  Demographics of student population ................................................................. 6
  School or district academic situation and position ............................................. 11
  Implications for fostering literacy development ............................................... 13
  Report including implications for professional development ............................. 14

Component 2 – Theory and Research Base of Balanced Reading Program ............ 15
  Introduction – Theoretical Basis for Balanced Reading Program ......................... 15
  Analysis ............................................................................................................... 17
  Summary of Analysis ......................................................................................... 19

Component 3 – Curriculum Mapping ................................................................. 20
  Curriculum Map for Elementary School ............................................................ 21
  Curriculum Map for Middle School .................................................................... 24
  Curriculum Map for High School ...................................................................... 27

Component 4 – Summary and Professional Development Plan ............................ 29
  Summary ............................................................................................................. 29
  Narrative Autobiography ................................................................................... 30
  Professional Development Plan ......................................................................... 33
  Annotated Bibliography ...................................................................................... 35
  Professional Organizations Review ..................................................................... 37

References ............................................................................................................ 39
References

Capella University. (n.d.) Capella University. Retrieved from http://www.capella.edu

